Ayurveda Rejuvenation

According to Ayurveda, everything in the universe is inter-connected and your good health and well-being is achieved only when your mind, body, senses and soul are in perfect sync with the universe. In today's fast-paced world, maintaining a balance can be very challenging. So we invite you to let us help you to relax and rejuvenate like never before.

Our in house spa is fully equipped and designed according to traditional Ayurveda measurements and is manned by our experienced staff. The main objective of our Ayurvedic treatment center – good health throughout your life achieved through a positive lifestyle. After a medical examination by our Ayurvedic doctor who will decide your “Dosha” profile, you will undergo a variety of treatments such as “Shirodhara”, steam baths, oil massage, face massage and head massage. We also conduct courses and train customers about the powerful natural treatments and massages.

Please contact us for more information about our spa treatments and training courses.

Yoga and Meditation (On Request)

While you stay at Green View, you can undergo Meditation and Yoga courses. Meditation is to identify, propagate and develop the good spiritual qualities and abilities within us. Those good spiritual abilities and qualities help us to live happily and peacefully and to guide others to do so as well. We have to be properly trained for this. Meditation does not happen automatically, you have to be trained with effort. Yoga ideology shows that man is especially important to the society and to man, his body and mindsets are vital above all proving that the foundation of yoga is the maintenance of the human body.

Why Not Try Something Truly Unique This Holiday and take a Sri Lankan Language Class or Maybe a Cooking Class - why not do both - Here at Green View - We offer everything. Learn the basic Language skills you require to travel our country. Language classes will build your basic vocabulary and help you with everyday challenges ie. Changing money, negotiating rates and taxi fares, shopping and airport transfers.

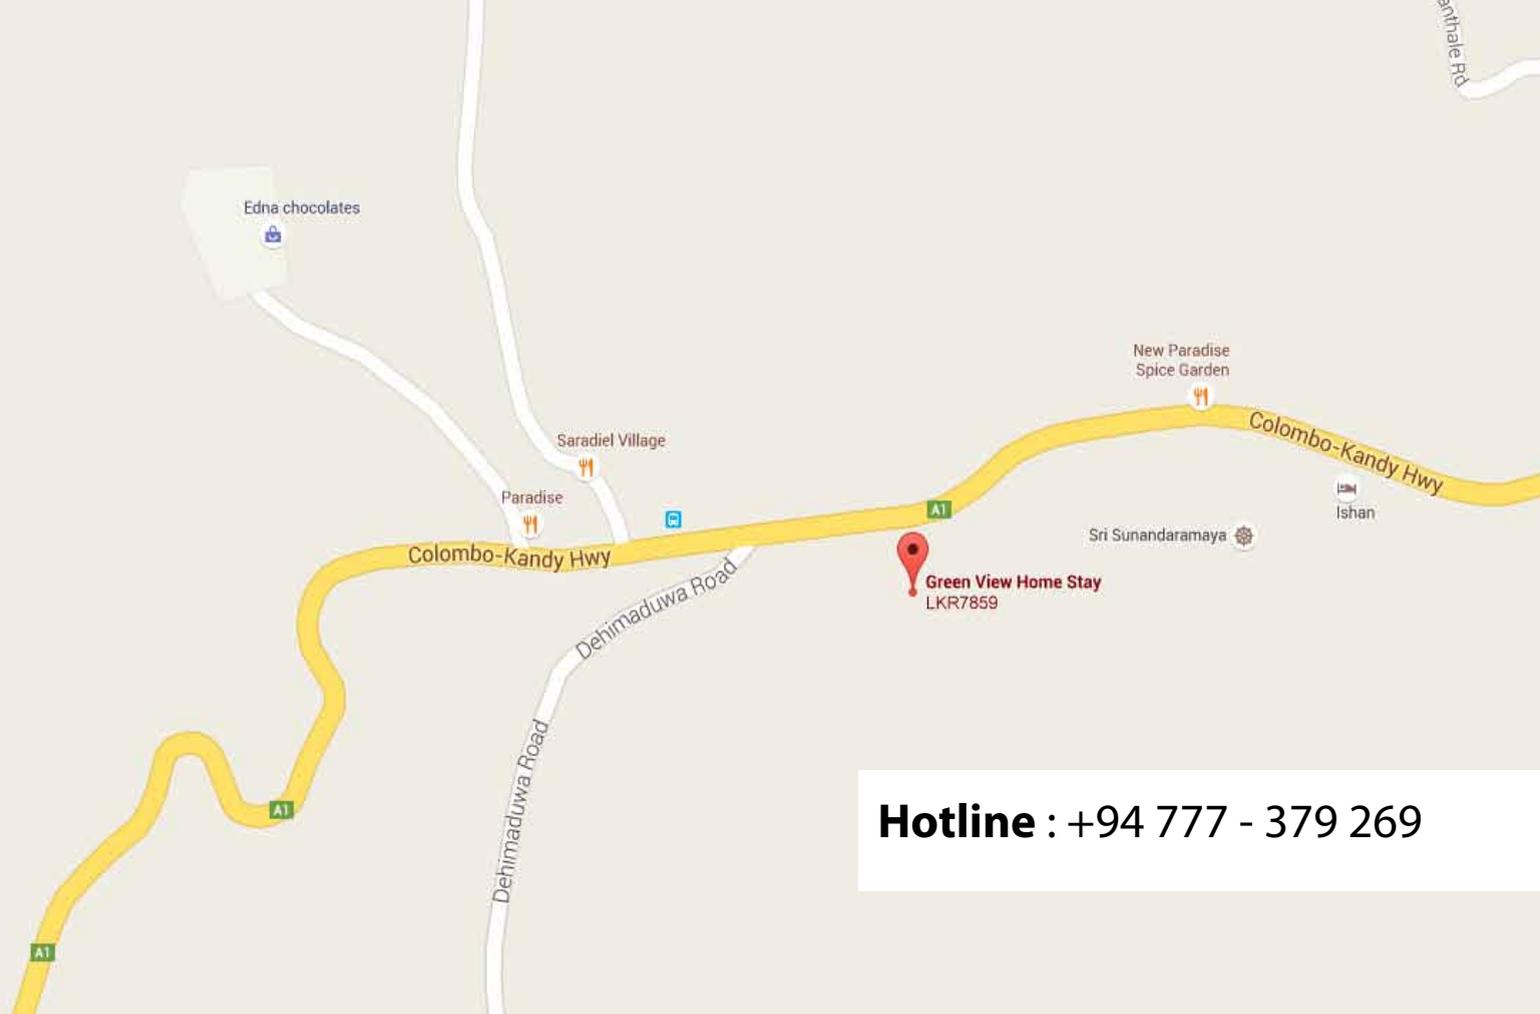

Learn the art of Sri Lankan cooking. Enjoy the experience of creating true Sri Lankan dishes with authentic ingredients and mouthwatering flavours. We offer Vegetarian dishes should you prefer and just think how impressed your friends will be when you get back home and whip up a traditional Sri Lankan Dish in your own kitchen.

These classes are provided with love and care at no charge. However donations are greatly appreciated to help us fund our animal welfare programs.

Supporting sustainable tourism

At the moment, Sri Lanka only allows certain groups to benefit from tourism in touristic cities. Green View has a vision always to bring the tourism to the village level and support local community, in terms of enhancing and enriching local villager's life and their knowledge and also let them mingle with tourists. This way both tourists and locals get a chance to share their life-styles and understand cultures and values. There are a few programs we are currently working on and while you stay, you can take part in these projects and support this. Please visit our website for more details.
